

1986 Creech Reunion – Katie Still Creech Tribute

Katie Still Creech was a good wife, mother and grandmother. She was the daughter of Tom Still and Ellen Sease - The wife of John Calvin Riley Creech, the mother of Otis, Addie, Lee, Latna, Rosa, Duise and Collie Creech.

She reared Talmadge, little Lewis and Mozelle Dyches. Their father died and their mother Latna remarried. Also, she reared Addie Lillian (Sweet) Dyches, the daughter of Jack Dyches and Addie Creech.

Katie's husband's sister Freedonia Creech died and left a small child Little Donnie Still. Grandmother Katie kept her until the child's father got married again abt 3 years later. But the child died of pneumonia a year later and is buried at Corinth Church near Statesboro, GA.

When Katie's husband died she returned to Barnwell with Mozelle and they lived with Otis Creech. Otis lost his wife Mamie and Grandmother Creech took care of all the Otis and Mamie Creech children. They were all grown, but how we all appreciated Grandmother living at our home. E.C.G. (Edna Creech Green)
